Tester Fe	eedback	Response/Action
	lake notification bar icons clickable	Will change
Δd	dd contact icon to footer	Will change
Jess	hange 'Hive' in navbar to 'Search hive'	Will change love manage hive to navbar	Will change ow to know that you are waiting for a collection to be approved when applying to be a worker bee.	Implemement a notification bar on the homepage.
	ard headers - have to click on text (rather than header) to get card to open.	Change headers to be clickable.
	, , ,	Change text to say 'Welcome to' me logged in.	Change text to say Welcome to think a FAQ clearly stating the difference between private, public and national collections would be useful.	Add FAQ for collection types aminical ring decarry stating the difference section private, public and national confections would be ascidi.	Add the following the second types lt i	might be nice to have some kind of forum so members can talk to each other.	Future development bout the Hive' on homepage	Will add there a plan to include local council services/facilities e.g. I think you can recycle lightbulbs at the Padworth	Add a kerbside collection option under local - is this a kerbside collection? If yes, change business name to council name and _	ump? Likewise aluminium foil?	remove address details
	lso under the FAQ section, would it be possible to put the links in the text in a stronger/contrasting colour as it is	Will change ifficult to distinguish between the general text colour and the link colour?
	urrently if you click on the 'Hive Collections' link at the top of the web page, the page is blank. What should the	Removed page
	ser expect to see here?	7-0-
Ca	an 'Recycling Hive is a place to checkout what can be recycled locally to you - above and beyond what your council	Will add 110	efuse service collects.' be mentioned on the homepage as a note to say what the site is.
Ιd	did get myself into a bit of a pickle after I had logged out. I went to look at the Demo site, and couldn't then get	Will add login link on demo ack to the Recycling Hive homepage. It just opened up the Demo site homepage, I tried changing the URL and also pened up a new browser To	elephone number/email option for places that might not always be collecting llinda	elephone number/email option for places that might not always be collecting	Future development
Linua	ome way of keeping public collections up to date	Future development Flag for collections - future development
So
So I ti	ome way of keeping public collections up to date	Flag for collections - future development
So I ti	ome way of keeping public collections up to date think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose	Flag for collections - future development
So I ti	ome way of keeping public collections up to date think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is.	Flag for collections - future development Will add
So I til of I til lts	ome way of keeping public collections up to date think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age.	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action
So I til of I til lts	ome way of keeping public collections up to date think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. On think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. On the suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action
So I til of I til Its	ome way of keeping public collections up to date think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age.	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text
So I til of I til its pa	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. Think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. Suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text
So I til of I til its pa Th Co Se	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. Static Hink my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. Suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct?	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar
So I til of I til its pa Th Co Se	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose of the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. Think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. Suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection — is this correct? The Public Collections So, I think this	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar
Inda So I til of Iti Its pa Th Co Se he	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. Chink my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. Suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection +I way to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others.	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item',
Ittl of Ittl of Ittl tts pa Th Co Se he	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member'
Ittl of Ittl of Ittl tts pa Th Co Se he	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. Chink my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. Suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection +I way to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others.	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item',
Inda So I til of Iti its pa Th Co Se he Nikki I til Hiidit	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member'
Inda So I til of Iti Its pa Th Co Se he Nikki I til Hii	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in afferent ways.	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page.
Itili of Itil of Itil Itis pa Th Coo Se he	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. Think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. Suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? Bearch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. Think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in ifferent ways. The Newbers is the Newbers of the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page.
Ittl of Ittl of Ittl tts pa Th Co Se he Nikki Ittl Hi dif Hii ch	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in ifferent ways. ive Collections – Can you skip the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item mosen. i.e. If I select Biscuit Wrappers, I then must select Jana, to get the details. If the recycling option = 1, show	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page.
Itili of Itili of Itili Itis pa Th Coo Se he Nikki Itili Hir dif Hir ch de Se	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. The Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public Collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection - is this correct? The Public Collections +Add a New Public Collection takes me to the public Collection takes me to the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. Think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in different ways. The Collections - Can you skip the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item mosen. i.e. If I select Biscuit Wrappers, I then must select Jana, to get the details. If the recycling option = 1, show etails, if >1 show	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page. Future development
Itili of Itili of Itili Itis pa Th Coo Se he Nikki Itili Hir diff Hir ch de Se it o	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public Collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection - is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in ifferent ways. ive Collections – Can you skip the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item nosen. i.e. If I select Biscuit Wrappers, I then must select Jana, to get the details. If the recycling option = 1, show etails, if >1 show electing Jana. Is there a way of removing some of the repeated information, such as Jana's address and only have	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page. Future development
Inda So I til of Itil of Itil Its pa Th Co Se he Nikki I til Hir diff Hir ch de Se it of fee fee	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection - is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in ifferent ways. ive Collections – Can you skip the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item nosen. i.e. If I select Biscuit Wrappers, I then must select Jana, to get the details. If the recycling option = 1, show etails, if >1 show electing Jana. Is there a way of removing some of the repeated information, such as Jana's address and only have once? A future useful development could also be pictures of the items recycled maybe. I appreciate that it may	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page. Future development
Nikki I til Hir ch de	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in ifferent ways. ive Collections – Can you skip the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item nosen. i.e. If I select Biscuit Wrappers, I then must select Jana, to get the details. If the recycling option = 1, show etails, if >1 show electing Jana. Is there a way of removing some of the repeated information, such as Jana's address and only have once? A future useful development could also be pictures of the items recycled maybe. I appreciate that it may sele like repeating a sp	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page. Future development Will change
Nikki I ti Hir ch	think it would be useful to have a section under 'Welcome to the Newbury ad Thatcham Hive to state the purpose if the site. What the Hive is for and what a Collection is. think my details and my hive activity on the same page are confusing. suggests that I will want to become a worker bee, but I may not. I suggest hat this is a new button on the home age. he Become a Worker Bee button takes me to a +Add a New Collection. The Public Collections +Add a New Public collection takes me to the +Add A new Collection – is this correct? earch Hive - I think most customers of the site will be looking for ways to recycle their items. So, I think this exagon should be more prominent. Maybe a different colour or ordered higher than the others. think the different categories at the top need a different format. i.e. Hive Categories, Hive items, Hive Collections, ive Members. It currently looks like a bread crumb trail rather than options to select displaying the information in ifferent ways. ive Collections – Can you skip the step of showing the Hive member if there is only one option from the item nosen. i.e. If I select Biscuit Wrappers, I then must select Jana, to get the details. If the recycling option = 1, show etails, if >1 show electing Jana. Is there a way of removing some of the repeated information, such as Jana's address and only have once? A future useful development could also be pictures of the items recycled maybe. I appreciate that it may seel like repeating a sp	Flag for collections - future development Will add No action Remove buttons for becoming worker bee and just leave explanation text Remove these buttons and just leave the item in navbar Swap search and add round Change to option buttons (same as Hive management page). Title on top to say 'Search by' and then have 'Cat', 'Item', 'Collection', 'Member' Remove collections page, remove 'View all' from cat. Page, remove non-collecting members from member page. Future development Will change